7. Masulirani nkhani yotsatirayi m'chichewa chomveka bwino.

Child abuse is any form of maltreatment by an adult, which is violent or threatening for a child. It can also be neglect, which means lack of love, care and attention.

Child abuse can be over a long period of time or just one-off action. It can happen in person or online.

Child abuse may cause physical and psychological problems. These problems can lead to anxiety, depression and substance use disorders. In order to hide the abuse from others, children may isolate themselves and have hard time making friends.
